Florida Institute of CPAs Installs Mia Thomas as Chairman of the Board

Tallahassee – The Florida Institute of Certified Public Accountants (FICPA) announces that Mia A. Thomas, CPA, CGMA of Orlando, will serve as the FICPA’s 2015-2016 Chair of the Board.

Thomas’ term began July 1, 2015.

“Mia Thomas is an exceptional leader. Her passion for accounting and accounting students are a credit to the profession,” said FICPA President/CEO Deborah Curry, CPA, CGMA. “Ms. Thomas is active in legislative advocacy and has helped Florida accounting students become CPAs through her scholarship fundraising and mentoring activities.” Thomas also is recipient of the FICPA’s Outstanding CPA in Public Service, Accounting for Success Speaker of the Year and Presidential Service awards.

Thomas is the president for Mia A. Thomas, P.A. in Orlando. She is serving her 11th term on the FICPA Board of Governors. She is past-president and a 14-year member of the FICPA Educational Foundation Board of Trustees. Nationally, Thomas is an elected member of the AICPA Council, representing Florida through 2017. She also serves on the TaxWatch Tax Advisory Council; Pauna Partners In Hope Treasurer; Orange and Seminole County Academy of Finance Board; Athlete Connections Foundation Treasurer and with the National House of Hope.
